

FOUR RECOMMENDED HOTELS

1: AMBASSADE HOTEL (AMSTERDAM)

The Ambassador Hotel consists of ten 17th-century “merchants” houses and stands on the imposing Herengracht in the heart of Amsterdam. A unique position in one of the most beautiful parts of the city; quite, yet within walking distance of all major attractions. The houses have been carefully restored to maintain their authentic character and all 59 rooms and suites have been furnished and decorated in Louis XVI style, combined with modern art.

A traditional and extensive Dutch breakfast is served in the classic breakfast room in the main building with views over the Herengracht. Apart from two lounges, the hotel disposes of an internet-office, a beautiful meeting-hall in 17th century style and a library with a collection of 2000 books, all signed by the authors during their stay at the hotel. Over the last few years the hotel acquired a remarkable collection of paintings of which many by artists from the well-known Cobra-group.

2: THE TOREN (AMSTERDAM)

Whoever wants to be treated to a unique and memorable stay in Amsterdam should stay at The Toren. The hotel's elegantly designed interior and warm welcome, combined with the beautiful surroundings of Amsterdam's central canal area create a special atmosphere and a safe haven for you to completely relax. The hotel has been designed with your pleasure in mind! Worldwide tourists and business travellers familiar with the hotel will discover it afresh.

The Toren is prominently placed amongst the grand 17th century canal houses of the Keizergracht. They form a perfect backdrop to the striking transformation of the hotel. Well known interior designer Wim van de Oudeweetering took charge of creating a chic, theatrical and slightly mystical ambience, in which style, warmth and comfort unite. The 38 guest rooms are all different and vary from small and elegant to spacious and stunningly beautiful.

4: TULIP INN HILVERSUM (HILVERSUM)

Explore the many possibilities the area has to offer: hiking or biking along the Loosdrecht lakes, lovely stroll through woods and over moorland. The Groeneveld Castle, Muiderslot (castle) or the idyllic town of Naarden-Vesting is also worth a visit.

Ample shopping opportunities are available in the center of Hilversum (five minutes by foot) or at the exclusive boutiques found in the fashionable town of Laren.

A visit to the 'Sound and Vision Media Experience' is definitely worth it. This museum offers a very interesting tour through the history of the media, and is a sensational attraction in television, radio, film, and music. This is just five minutes walk from our hotel.
